

The Hippodrome Theatre is proud to present LET THE RIGHT ONE IN, by Jack Thorne and based on the Swedish novel by John Ajvide Lindqvist. Directed by Lauren Warhol Caldwell, LET THE RIGHT ONE IN is on stage from Oct. 12 through Nov. 4, with discount previews on Oct. 10 and Oct 11.

“LET THE RIGHT ONE IN is a tale of two outsiders finding their love for each other,” said Lauren Warhol Caldwell, Artistic Director of the Hippodrome Theatre and director of LET THE RIGHT ONE IN. “It is beautiful and haunting,” Caldwell said, “But it is not your typical vampire story.”

Oskar, a lonely boy living with his mother on the edge of town, is bullied at school and longing for friendship. Eli, the young girl who moves in next door, never goes to school and rarely leaves home. These two youngsters, sensing in each other kindred spirits, become devoted friends. But when a spate of sinister killings rock the neighborhood, a shocking truth tests their young friendship -and love- beyond all imaginable limits.

LET THE RIGHT ONE IN was adapted by Jack Thorne, the Tony award winning playwright of Harry Potter and the Cursed Child currently running on Broadway. Jack Thorne also wrote the book for the much-anticipated Broadway adaptation of King Kong. LET THE RIGHT ONE IN is based on the novel by John Ajvide Lindqvist and the Swedish film by the same name, the Hollywood film is called LET ME IN. This captivating piece is a tender vampire myth told through the turbulence of a coming-of-age romance.

Book now for the best seats at 352-375-4477 or order online at thehipp.org and use the sponsor coupon code: HIPPSPONSOR10. Act now – valid for all showtimes now through Sunday, September 23!

Member tickets are only $10 so get yours TODAY!